

First-Year Student

Phone number:

e-mail:

Clarkson University

P.O. Box 1111

Cohoes, New York 12029

Home Address:
Street:
City, State, Zip Code:

OBJECTIVE	Internship where I can apply my business and engineering skills and learn how a corporation works.
EDUCATION	Clarkson University Bachelor of Science (degree expected) May 2007 Major: Interdisciplinary Engineering and Management, GPA: 4.0 Clarkson University Honors Program
RELATED EXPERIENCE	Team-based Innovation and Design, Clarkson University Collaborated on IBM-sponsored team project for IBM Global Advisors. Designed, built, and maintained a dynamic system. Learned cooperation, conflict management, project planning, mastery of technical and Matlab, production processes, and marketing procedures.
WORK EXPERIENCE	Physics Team Design Lab, Clarkson University Collected information using a wind tunnel and various chambers on the drag and friction of a Mustang car. Predicted the car's behavior in various situations. Gained hands-on experience by developing mathematical models, designing experimental methods, and testing.
WORK EXPERIENCE	University of XXXXXXXX, City, State	2003, Fall, '04
	Software, Technology, and Engineering Group for Girls
	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Assembly Lab Assistant and Flight Crew (2003-04) Supervised the computers in the construction of model airplanes, and later each week helped them to get sections in the airplanes and fly them. • Friendship Lab Assistant (2004) Assisted in the computers in the friendly to create hot steam castings of airplane nose cones by cutting them and pouring them, and then performed the finishing procedures of sanding, drilling, and sanding the castings. • Junior Counselor (2003) Responsible for organizing and leading groups of ten girls each week and guiding them through various activities and classes.
	Red Cedar Soccer, City, State	Sept. 2003 to June 2004
	Worked as a assistant referee of youth soccer games for kids ages 7-11. Took charge of running games, reporting results, awarding points, and execution of rules and disciplinary procedures on the field.
LEADERSHIP	XXXXXXXX High School Varsity Tennis, City, State	Aug to Oct. 2002
	Served as the varsity team captain for the 2002 fall tennis season. Run practices, planned dinners, organized fund-raisers, encouraged fellow teammates, and led by example in dedication and work ethic.
	XXXXXXXX Marching Band, City, State	Aug to Oct. 2002
	Funded the expansion section of a competitive pep-style marching band. Organized sections, instructed beginners in playing and marching, promoted unity and confidence within the group, and led by example in practice and self-discipline.
COMMUNITY SERVICE	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Red Cedar After-School Tutoring Assisted students in completing homework. • Red Cedar Church Outreach Taught children ages 1-7 during Sunday worship services. • Community Band Instructed variety ensembles in Red Cedar.
HONORS	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Clarkson University Presidential Academic • Red Cedar High School Valedictorian, 2000 	